TO : FILE

DATE: 12/1/72

FROM : SAC RICHARD D. ROGGE

SUBJECT: BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
ROBERT E. LEE COUNCIL ✓

80-0-595

80-2-2609

At 3:16 P.M., 12/1/72, Judge KERMIT V. ROOKE of the City Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, Richmond, Va., telephonically contacted SAC and stated he understood SAC was very familiar with scouting work and that he desired to extend an invitation to SAC to accept a position on the Executive Board of the Robert E. Lee Council. Judge ROOKE stated the Board meets six times a year and that having a representative of the FBI on the Board would be a tremendous asset.

In view of the Bureau's historical position of supporting the Boy Scouts of America and what they stand for, the SAC agreed to be a member in order to enhance our position with the organization. It should be pointed out that SAC was in his youth a Life Scout and was also an Assistant Scoutmaster while assigned to the Washington Field Office. He has also been a Merit Badge Counsellor during his Bureau career.

Judge ROOKE stated that he was most pleased and that the Council would be in touch with SAC shortly.

Dear Jim,

On behalf of the Executive Board of the Robert E. Lee Council and all the dinner participants, thank you for a very appropriate and inspirational speech. The time and effort you put forth to prepare your comments and delivery of them to us will bear great dividends as they work on the motivation of those volunteers serving youth through Scouting.

I hope your schedule will enable you to become involved with Scouting, at the Council level, sometime in the future. With your permission, and for your review, we will consider some possible ways in which you might assist in our efforts to make Scouting available to all boys.

Cordially,

Dear Jim:

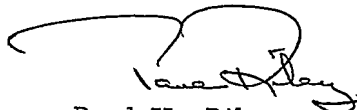

It was a sincere pleasure to visit with you briefly by telephone yesterday and to learn of your interest in participating in certain civic and community activities.

The Boy Scout project, "Open House for Scouting" should not involve a great amount of time and will provide an opportunity to gain some acquaintance with the Robert E. Lee Council. It is a project of short duration, which will climax in October, and I think you will find  an able staff member to work with.

Many thanks for your cooperation in the Scout effort, and I look forward to the opportunity to meet and visit with you in person.

Sincerely yours,

Paul H. Riley

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Knowing of your interest in the youth of our country, we feel we can impose on your busy schedule and ask your help.

We believe, as you do, that the national and international affairs are important, but that the character building elements and national pride fostered through scouting is the key to future generations.

We are planning a fund-raising dinner and would be honored to have you as our keynote speaker. The dinner will be held at the Salisbury Country Club, Salisbury Road, Midlothian, Virginia (18 miles from downtown Richmond), at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, January 19, 1976.

Looking forward to your favorable reply.

Sincerely,

Shawondasse District

Dear [redacted]

I appreciate your letter of October 7th and your thoughtfulness in inviting me to be the keynote speaker at your fund-raising dinner on January 19, 1976. While I would very much enjoy participating in your Scouting functions, I regret that the pressure of my official schedule will not permit me to do so. I thank you for thinking of me and hope you will have a most successful affair.

Sincerely yours,
